

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am [REDACTED], writing this letter in order to explain to you additional information on the trip, which my family really wants to carry out.

For the duration of the trip, I will fully cover the expenses of my son, my wife has her own business, so she has her own funds, but if necessary, I am ready to assume any expenses related to our trip to Canada.

My daughter [REDACTED] for family reasons can not go with us, so during our absence she will be under the supervision of my mother [REDACTED].

We specifically plan a trip during the autumn holidays of my son, so he did not miss school, so the trip is planned short, but very busy, itinerary I attach to my application.

My wife and children travel very often, I unfortunately less, as a lot of work in an important position and can not always allocate time to travel anywhere abroad. I would love the opportunity to visit Canada this fall. If necessary, I am ready to provide any documents that will be required to make a decision.
